Sir

Hag B

With reference to Government Order No 1005-6-27-2 Ed dt 5th/6 August 1904 sanctioning with certain observations the appointment of Narasimha Sastri as Sanskrit Pandit of the Normal School Mysore, on a starting pay of Rs 26 in Class III of Pandits and Munshis I have the honour to inform you that it was found after careful enquiries that no other Sanskrit Pandit with the qualifications and experience of Hosur Narasimha Sastri, who has

I has taught Sanskrit literature for several years in the Maharajas Sanskrit College, was available to do the work of the retired Pandit Srikanta Sastri Hence Hafsan Narasimha Sastri was appointed on Rs 26 per mensem, which was reported to be his income in the Sanskrit College inclusive of the remuneration for some extra work he was doing. I would not have appointed a Pandit on higher than the minimum pay of the grade if I could have secured the services of a competent man on the minimum pay I had to engage the services of Hassan Narasimha Sastri in anticipation of sanction in order to avoid a break in the Sanskrit teaching of the Normal School for too long a period
